

Pulp & Paper Safety Conference

Flaming C's of Safety
(Commitment, Control, Consequences)
Caring Safety Leadership
6/23/2014

Definitions

- ▶ Caring
 - Displaying kindness and concern for others.
- ▶ Safety
 - The condition of being protected from or unlikely to cause danger, risk, or injury.
- ▶ Leadership
 - The action of leading a group of people or an organization

The action of leading a group of people (or organization) to be protected, or lead them to be unlikely to cause danger, risk, or injury through kindness and concern .

Caring

- ▶ Know Thyself – Are you real?
 - Why do you care about safety?
 - I've seen enough.
 - What do you sincerely believe?
 - 0 injuries??? Cuts and Commitment.
 - What do you amplify?
 - Production or Safety?
 - Natural amplification of arrival.
 - ID fan alignment.
 - How do you spend your time
 - “Small” talk.
 - Why should anybody think you care about their safety if you don't care about their life? What about Injuries?
 - You win individuals one heart at a time?
 - Mill needs vs. individual needs

Caring and Consequences

- ▶ Consequences.....how does that match care?
 - Do you care enough to watch out for their safety?
- ▶ What is a good day for you?
 - Equipment will re-define.
 - Equipment has no feelings.
 - Equipment will not even slow down.
- ▶ Care enough to NOT let equipment teach consequences – it does not care.....

PORT WENTWORTH SAFETY, HEALTH AND WELLNESS POLICY

Welcome to our house. In our house, we care for each other and hold the health and safety of ourselves and our visitors as a core value. These values can be expressed in a few simple basics.

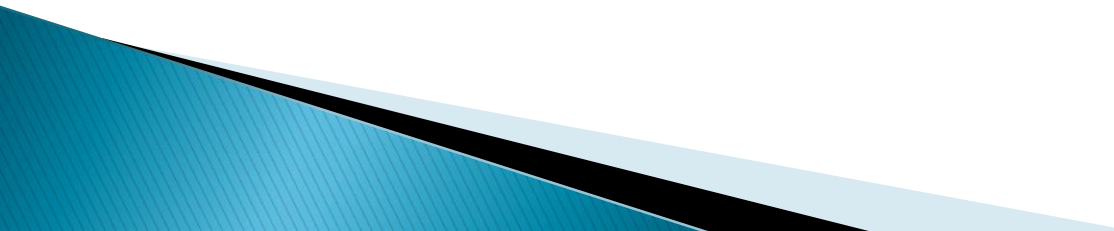

Our caring for people and the importance we put on their well being does not stop with the boundaries of this site but extends into the home and into the community.

Our caring is expressed in our continuous quest for an injury-free workplace and in our commitment to influence healthy choices and safe behaviors beyond the workplace.

Our caring dictates a journey to an injury-free work place begins with ensuring the safety and health of ourselves and those business partners who are most directly at risk.

Our caring is characterized by a willingness to intervene to “Be our brother’s keeper” and be thankful when someone cares for us.

Style: Management by Labrador

- ▶ Know what you want – really!
 - ▶ Constant, consistent pressure to get there.
 - ▶ Move forward whenever possible.
 - ▶ Don't bark or bite.
 - ▶ Take setbacks in stride.
 - ▶ Go back to the beginning.
-

Have you seen enough?

Enough to Care????