This two and half day conference will feature topics on individual commitment and the importance of developing a caring culture, new control methods celebrating safety innovations, and the consequence of life changing injuries and the importance of a focus on a critical few risk areas.

The conference is on June 22-25, 2014 at the Renaissance Vinoy Resort in St. Petersburg, FL. The early bird registration rates are $575 for members and $650 for non members.

"There has been genuine excitement this year around the great speakers who will be supporting our conference," said Matthew Kanneberg, Conference Chairman. "Our speakers make up a diverse group from amongst our industry, within the safety & health field as well as some of North American's most well-known motivational and technical speakers."
